About the piece....

Scene From the Silver Plate takes its title from the Rio de la Plata, the literal translation being Silver River, although it is more commonly known in English speaking countries as River Plate. The river takes its name not as a reference to colour, but from Sierra del Plata - a legendary, although fictional, treasure trove mountain range, made from silver.

This piece, using some of the traditional music from the region (Variants on the tango etc.), is quasi-incidental music from a fictional film, involving some kind of chase from the silver mountains to the estuary. Our fictional hero also has a romantic interest - will he make it away with his silver, and his lady?

This original version for trombone duet with piano was commissioned by Chris Houlding, and is dedicated to Chris and Brett Baker, who gave the premiere performance.
